“Who are you? Identity thieves really want to know.”

Please check the project components that are of interest to your credit union.

This information is required in order for NYCUF to determine the level of credit union participation. The level of participation will indicate the quantity of promotional materials that can be prepared within the grant budget, and if necessary, the materials that may have fees associated with them. Participation information will also allow us to schedule train-the-trainer workshops and member education programs in appropriate locations based upon demand.
