

Celebrate Youth Week in jeans!

Supporting youth financial education is always rewarding, but especially when you get to dress down! By donating just $____, you can help New York youth get the financial skills they need...and you can give those “work clothes” a break.

Donate $_____ and dress down: _____

Your donation will support the youth financial education programs of the New York Credit Union Foundation. These programs help credit unions, teachers and other community leaders teach youth how to become financially responsible. That’s something we can all invest in!

The NYCUF offers a range of youth financial education programs to credit unions, schools and community organizations. Go to www.nycuf.org for program details. The Foundation works to improve the financial literacy and independence of New Yorkers. The Foundation, a 501(c) (3) nonprofit organization, is the charitable arm of the Credit Union Association of New York.
